

News 17

Origins of the term NEET

The term NEET (not in education, employment or training) was originally coined in Britain. Young people in this category have existed in the UK for many years. Within the UK the NEET age range is considered 16-24. In a briefing paper presented at the House Of Commons in March, 2018 we are able to ascertain a number of points related to British NEET youth.

