C3 - short staff mobility for training aim - day 1

On the 8th of May 2018 two representatives from each partner countries gathered in Larnaca, Cyprus with the aim of training.

The first day was spent on integration activities, and although for most participants it was the third meeting that they have attended, those activities were very important in terms of cooperation that was ahead of them within the next three days. The agenda of the meeting included not only working on intellectual outputs but also the summary of the previous work as well as training and practising activities.
