C3 - short staff mobility for training aim - day 4

The last day of our C3 meeting was dedicated mainly to summaries and coordination work.

Participants discussed the progress of the work on intellectual outputs and indicated the missing elements or the ones that are needed to be improved. They also set the deadlines for other pieces of work. There was also time for testing our game.

Each participant received Certificates of attendance and filled in evaluation forms. After this, all participants left to go back to their countries with new knowledge and experience!
