

News 53

Testing our game in the UK

Praxis Europe organized a meeting for local young people and educators with the aim of testing our game.

The meeting was very successful. All participants enjoyed playing the game and found it very interesting. Opinions were gathered and the game will be developed. Thank you for your contribution!